

IEP 2014 Annual Workshop

Poster Reception

Call for Abstracts

Abstracts Due: February 7, 2014

The organizers of the 2014 Interagency Ecological Program (IEP) Workshop are soliciting abstracts for poster presentations. The workshop will be held at the Lake Natoma Inn (<http://www.lakenatomainn.com/>) in Folsom, CA on February 26 -28, 2014. The poster reception is from 5:00 to 7:00 pm on Thursday, February 27th and is open to all registered IEP and CWEMF participants.

All IEP poster abstract submissions must include:

1. Author(s) full names and affiliations, including mailing address, phone, fax, and email address;
2. Title, briefly composed in sentence case format; and
3. Abstract, in 300 words or less.
4. A separate paragraph of 50 words or less describing the statement of relevance of your work to water and environmental policy and management.

The deadline for poster abstracts is February 7th. Submit IEP abstracts to Lori Smith (lori_smith@fws.gov) AND Jennifer Messineo. (Jennifer.Messineo@wildlife.ca.gov). Due to limited space, poster abstract submissions are limited to one submission per primary author. Thank you!

A Poster Poetry Slam hosted by Steve Culberson will again be on this year's agenda. This entertaining and creative opportunity for all poster presenters is THE chance to give a brief introduction (60 seconds or less) of their poster in any format. Think SLAM! Haiku! Sock Puppets! Music Video! Make us interested in your poster and win fame and notoriety in the process!!

More IEP Workshop information will be posted on the IEP website (<http://www.water.ca.gov/iep/>) as the information becomes available.
